

Here at Playset Junction, we carry one of the most extensive arrays of swing hangers anywhere. We carry swing hangers for backyard residential use, hangers for schools, churches and parks, and everything in between. Below are the swing hangers we carry and the pertinent information for each hanger. This guide gives you a quick comparison regarding the attributes of each hanger.

Playset Junction Swing Hanger Guide

Hanger Grade	Residential	Residential	Residential	Residential	Commercial/ Residential	Commercial/ Residential
Weight Limit	125 lbs	125 lbs	150 lbs	350 lbs	350 lbs	350 lbs
Bolting Type	Thru-Bolt	Lag	Carriage/Lag	Carriage/Lag	Carriage/Lag	Clamp
Coating	Galvanized	Galvanized	Powder coated steel	Powder coated steel	Galvanized	Galvanized
Swing attachment	Hook	Hook	Hook	Spring Clips	Spring Clips	Spring Clips/Shackle
Overall	Standard bolt-thru swing hanger for residential backyard use	Great for hanging a baby swing under a deck or any situation where you can't get to the top of the wood swing beam	Medium duty hanger. Stronger than a basic hanger but not as heavy duty as the large steel hanger	Heavy duty residential hanger. Great for adults or children	Commercial grade hanger with a 350 lb weight rating.	Commercial grade hanger used primarily in schools, parks and churches.

Terms

Hanger Grade:	The grade of the hanger; Either backyard residential use or commercial use for schools, parks, and playgrounds.
Weight Limit:	The maximum working load of the hangers as a pair.
Bolting Type:	How the hangers bolt to the substrate.
Coating:	The exterior coating on the hangers for durability.
Chain attachment:	How the swing attaches to the hangers.
Overall:	An overall view of the hangers.